DAY 0: Send Immediately

SUBJECT: [Confirmation] You're registration is pending...

BODY:

{Firstname}, this is in regards to the Freelance Marketing training you signed up for earlier today (important so hang with me)...

First, allow me to introduce myself.

My name is _____ and, like you, just a short while back I was looking for a way to take control of my financial destiny, my calendar, and my life.

There was just one small problem...

I had no products, no service, and no idea where to start.

That's when I found Keala Kanae (just like you did).

In fact, that training you signed up for is the same training that blew the doors wide open for me.

The long and the short of it is this.

Today, I have an online business using the system that Keala talks about in his Masterclass.

And I'll be here every step of the way in case you have any questions going forward.

With that said, make sure to attend the training at the date and time you registered for.

You should see emails and text messages reminding you to attend.

If you miss it, there's no guarantee you'll be able to attend later.

Wishing you the best,

- YOUR NAME

DAY 1: Send at 8AM Their Time Zone (Or 7AM PACIFIC)

SUBJECT: How was your Masterclass with Keala?

BODY:

Hey {Firstname},

Were you able to attend your Masterclass with Keala Kanae?

If your scheduled class hasn't started yet, then I sincerely hope you make the time to attend.

Check your email for updates and links to login.

If you did attend already, how did you like the class?

For what it's worth, I was a little skeptical to act on everything Keala talked about in the class.

However, after thinking about it, I came to this conclusion:

There are no statues built in the honor of skeptics. You know what I mean?

I want to do something great with my life.

For myself.

For my family.

And for others, too.

And skepticism isn't going to help me get there.

So I took the plunge. And I'm happy I did.

Be on the lookout for more communication from Keala and I to help you move forward,

P.S. I don't work for Keala.

I work for myself.

I just so happen to also be a real life success story of the training which is why I'm reaching out. Anyway, talk soon ;-)

DAY 2: Send at 8AM Their Time Zone (Or 7AM PACIFIC)

SUBJECT: The only smart decision (read this)

BODY:

Hey {Firstname},

If you're reading this right now, chances are you're considering working with Keala Kanae and his Fullstaq Accelerator program.

Obviously, I don't know you personally.

But let me tell you my experience...

Everything Keala promised in the training, he delivers on (and more).

Right after I got started, I was able to login to the members area and begin my training.

The first thing I did was book my call with his Advisor team.

They took the time to get to know me, my goals, and my unique desires for my life.

Then they made a few recommendations about what I should do next.

And the long and the short of it is this...

Today, I have my own online business.

It's working 24/7/365 on my behalf even when I'm not.

Now, is it as immense as I'd like to be?

Well... no.

But it's far, far closer than if I'd sat on my laurels and made excuses, right?

Plus, I gave up on get-r*ch-quick schemes a long time ago.

This is a real business. It takes work. But if you'll do the work, it'll work for you, too.

I hope to see you in our private community soon.

Feel free to reply if you need anything,
